

Child Abuse and Neglect

Collaboration in Child Abuse Investigations

Target Audience

Child protective services, contract providers, law enforcement, educational professionals, child advocacy centers, county attorneys, Guardian *ad litem*s (GALs), judges, and members of multi-disciplinary teams.

Description

The purpose of this four-hour course is to present the collaborative approach to child abuse and neglect investigations. Participants will be introduced to:

- ◆ Child welfare terminology
- ◆ How child abuse and neglect is investigated and assessed in Nebraska
- ◆ The roles and responsibilities of child protective services, law enforcement and child advocacy centers in protecting children

Participants will be assigned a role (detective, nurse practitioner, initial assessment worker, etc.) and utilize their new knowledge as they work their way through a child abuse and neglect case.
